3b) Whom does this program benefit?

Because of the Faith Activities of Council members, everyone in our parish benefits directly or through the grace generated by these activities.

3c) What problem or need did this program resolve?

WE ALL NEED THE LORD! The members of the council provide opportunities through reading the Rosary before every weekend Mass in October (Month of the Holy Rosary), January (Respect Life Month) and May (Month of Mary). By staffing Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament the second Thursday each month (open to close) and with an annual cemetery Mass at St. Patrick Cemetery

3d) Why did the council select this program?

To emphasize the need for prayer in our lives. To provide a platform for our fellow parishioners to join in community prayer and to remember our departed brothers and sisters.

3e) Describe the success of the program:

The success of our program can only be decided by the Almighty. However, we have an increase in participation in all of these activities especially in the weekend Rosaries before Mass. Praying the Rosary in Community can always lead to greater things.
